

How to Use the North Dakota DHS Prior Authorization Website

Health Information Designs, LLC (HID) maintains the ND DHS Prior Authorization website, which serves as a single source for Medicaid prior authorization information, including forms, criteria, and medication coverage information. The website also provides information on DUR Board meetings and links to other state Medicaid websites. The functionality of each menu item is detailed in the following figure.

